

In Partnership with SCS, OILRC is offering a Youth/Young Adult Transition Workshop Series

SERVICE
COORDINATION
SUPPORT
SERVICE
COORDINATION
SOUTIEN

This 16-week workshop series (June-September 2023) will focus on life and social skills for individuals with developmental disabilities (18-25 years old). Workshop topics will include: healthy relationships, community safety, online safety, connecting with technology, and financial literacy.

This workshop series is FREE for participants
Please register by emailing:
gvarelas@oilrc.com

Facilitator: Georgina Varelas-Stapper, M.ADS, BCBA

Gina is a Board Certified Behaviour Analyst (BCBA) with over 10 years experience developing and supervising treatment programs for adults, youth and children diagnosed with autism, intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) and dual diagnosis.

She currently serves as the Executive Director at Ottawa Independent Living Resource Centre and is a part time faculty member at Algonquin College in the Developmental Services Worker Program.

Gina is completing a Doctorate in Education. She received her Master in Applied Disability Studies with a specialization in Applied Behaviour Analysis. She holds a B.Sc. (Honours) in Psychology and Neuroscience and a Developmental Services Worker diploma.

